THAT KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

Needs no demonstration, and he who by experience knows the value of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient does not need to be told that he has it within his power to ward off fevers, bilious attacks, headaches and all the ills arising from a disordered stomach, liver or bowels. A teaspoonful in a glass of water before eating acts like a charm, and no wise man will be without it. For sale by all druggists.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

"A High Private in the Rear Rank."

TO OUR MANY PATRONS

ON ACCOUNT OF THE GREAT fire, the Merchandise Department of the ART BAZAR is removed to the store lately occupied by David Yearsley, in the Hooper & Eldredge block. The Photographic Department, in charge of Mr. Ralph Savage, has also been transferred to John Olson's new gallery, on Commercial street. Persons having paid for portraits in advance at the old stand can have them retaken after July 1st, free of charge. No pains will be spared to keep up the standard of excellence. Bitterly maintained. Rally! Rally! Rally! A new series of views will soon be taken. Nothing was saved from the upper part of the Art Bazar.

LATEST TELEGRAMS

Teller's Opposition.

Washington, 23.—Secretary Teller received copies of the published dispatches from General Schofield and Crook regarding the treatment of the Apache captives. The secretary will insist on these Indians being kept off the San Carlos reservation, and says that Secretary Lincoln will co-operate with him. Secretary Teller will leave Washington for Chicago to-night, to be absent about a week.

The Bond Cases.

Keokuk, Ia., 23.—Arguments in the bond cases, which have required a week in hearing by Justice

Miller and Judge Caldwell, closed to-day. During the argument Justice Miller stated that the court was satisfied that the bonds were constitutional and valid, the decision in the Arkansas supreme court to the contrary notwithstanding; as to whether they had been created by acts extended beyond the income and revenues of the companies to whom bonds were issued, and whether bondholders were entitled to avail themselves of the remedies provided for the state, were questions which they desired to hear argued. The cases were then taken under advisement, the attorneys on each side filing written briefs.

It Killed Him.

Galveston, 23.—News' Longview special: James Chatham, formerly a prominent citizen of Clarksville, but lately of San Marcol, was ac-rested at the latter place on Thursday, charged with forging the proof of the death of a member of the Mutual Self-Endowment Association for a policy of $5,000. He was brought to Longview this morning and jailed. He was allowed to go into another room by himself, and shortly after was found dead with his throat cut. He left letters asserting his innocence.

The Jewish Butchers.

London, 23.—In the trial, yesterday, at Nureghaza, Hungary, of the Jews accused of having murdered a Christian girl and used her blood to mix with their passover bread, the only clear evidence adduced tended strongly to establish an alibi in favor of Buxbaum, the Jewish butcher. Witnesses for the prosecution contradicted each other and also their own former statements. The audience in court openly threatened witnesses for the defense with punishment. The public prosecutor in consequence of the disorder in court, declared he would propose most stringent measures for the preservation of order unless the president stopped the disturbances. A Times correspondent believes that the boy Maritz Scharf, principal witness for the prosecution, is a maniac.

Washington Wisp.

Washington, 23.—Hon. Montgomery Blair is lying dangerously ill in his summer residence near Silver Springs, Maryland.
The case of Wilson vs. Gabriel, involving the title to land in San Francisco, is decided in Gabriel's favor.

It was supposed that the presidential favor of consolidating the internal revenue collection districts would be issued to-day, but the clerical labor of reducing the scheme to writing was greater than anticipated and it was not ready to be submitted to the President until late in the evening. In the meantime some considerations had been offered that seemed to make some change needful, and the issuance of the order has been deferred until Monday.

Explosion.

Jacksonville, Ill., 23.—This afternoon a lot of fireworks exploded in the store of L. H. McDonald, book and news dealer, blowing out the entire front of the building and enveloping it in a sheet of flame. A.
